“Soy una dama que cree que una buena comida está a la altura de una obra de arte de valor incalculable”. Pocos dirían que esta frase la pronunció Elizabeth Taylor, actriz superlativa de ojos violetas únicos e irrepetibles, ganadora de dos Óscar, pero de cuidada y menuda figura. The background of the entire image is a faded, warm-toned photograph of a Spanish-style residence. It features a large, light-colored stucco building with arched windows and a tiled roof. In the foreground, there is a paved patio area with several outdoor chairs and a small table. To the right, a swimming pool is visible, bordered by a low stone wall and some landscaping. The overall atmosphere is bright and sunny, typical of a Mediterranean or Spanish environment.
